

Happy Father's Day on June 18, 2017 to the many Fathers who have been there for their children, who have provided in the best way that they could, who have loved their children unconditionally, who have taught their families the importance of hard work, and who have tried to prepare them for the joy and disappointments that life may bring. Thank you for all you do.

OUR DAD

God took the strength of a mountain,
The majesty of a tree,
The warmth of a summer sun,
The calm of a quiet sea,
The generous soul of nature,
The comforting arm of night,
The wisdom of the ages,

The power of the eagle's flight,
The joy of a morning in spring,
The faith of a mustard seed,
The patience of eternity,
The depth of a family need,
Then God combined these qualities,
When there was nothing more to add,
He knew his masterpiece was complete,
And so, he called it

Dad

FROM YOUR
MODERATOR
Carroll Rinker

Everywhere I turn I am confronted with the hate, and fear that is bred by a world in turmoil. We no longer hear positive debate of ideas that might move our country forward. There is no civil exchange between our political parties to determine what is good for the people of this nation and the world we play such a large role in. Trust for our elected officials disappeared a long time ago and we care less about those who are starving than we do about what the stock market is doing today.

The news media places us conveniently into our sub categories (white, black, hispanic, immigrant, illegal, red, green.....) as they deem appropriate for their reports and the boosting of their broadcast ratings. If you are a conspiracy theorist, you can find someone with a blog who supports any theory you might have or with just the flip of a channel there is a TV Evangelist who has dedicated his life to interpreting the scripture so that he might tell you we are closer than close to the end of the world.

There are many things wrong in the world we live in, but it is up to us to choose. Do we let it fill us with hate and consume us to the point we become part of the medium that is broadcasting hate and fear? Or do we claim the peace and comfort of our mighty and all-knowing creator and giver of life and step out in our faith in Jesus Christ and live the life He is offering to us?

Therefore, if anyone is in Christ, the new creation has come: The old has gone, the new is here! All this is from God, who reconciled us to himself through Christ and gave us the ministry of reconciliation: that God was reconciling the world to himself in Christ, not counting people's sins against them. And he has committed to us the message of reconciliation. We are therefore Christ's ambassadors, as though God were making his appeal through us. We implore you on Christ's behalf: Be reconciled to God.

2 Corinthians 5:17-20

When we choose to look around we see there is too much of God's goodness about to allow hate and fear to grow.

Love in Jesus,
Kelly

As I drove up my road this morning I saw a deer standing in the middle. She was slow to move and I soon saw why. A very tiny fawn followed her across before they both disappeared into the woods. Even though I know we have more deer than we need (want?) it is still exciting to me to see new birth each year.

Another thing that has me excited is the growth I see in our church! The annual fish fry must have had the best attendance I have seen while I have been a member of the church. The room was filled. Thanks to Cindy Hoch for organizing and working so hard to make sure this event was a success. She had a team of helpers that pitched in wherever needed.

I am so glad that we will continue with our fellowship dinners during the summer. There are a number of people who leave for the winter and do not get to enjoy this time together. In addition, summer brings visitors to the lake and to our church. What better way to have a chance to get to know them than breaking bread together.

Many new faces are appearing at the Supper and Soul gatherings on Wednesday nights. Good food, good fellowship and a good message from Kelly make this a time not to be missed.

What will you do for God's service?

BOARD MEETING

in the church office.

Applying Bible Principles

The vast majority of people like to excel at something. Most of us like to do what we do in a manner that is truly first-class. Whether we are involved in one of the trades, or whether we are working in a profession, we like to excel in what we do.

Similarly, in the Christian life, most of us like to demonstrate our love for the Lord in ways that will reflect properly on Him and that will bring honor to Him. As His servants, we take great care that our Christian service is of such quality that what we do for His sake is first-class. Thus, whether we sing a solo in a worship service at church, prepare a meal for someone who is a shut-in, or teach a Bible class, we strive to do what we do for God in the very best way possible.

The Apostle Paul indicates we are also to excel in the grace of giving. “. . . just as you excel in everything – in faith, in speech, in knowledge, in complete earnestness and in your love for us – see that you also excel in this grace of giving” (2 Cor. 8:7). In other words, just as we might seek to excel in other ways which demonstrate our Christian faith in action, we are also to excel in the grace of giving.

In the context of the verse we just read, Paul commends the Macedonian Christians for giving as much as they were able and more. When we follow their example, we experience “grace giving” in action, not only giving as we are able, but also, giving beyond our ability. This is possible only as we demonstrate the fruit of the Christian life by the power of the Holy Spirit within us. As we step out by faith (which is one of the signs of a Spirit-controlled life), we are able to give in ways which might seem improbable or impossible at first. The Spirit of God thereby motivates us and compels us to excel in the grace of giving!

One anonymous writer penned these powerful words: “God has a storehouse of blessings. Prayer is the key to that storehouse. But faith both turns the key and unlocks the door.”

Say, are you excelling in the grace of giving? If not, why not take God at His Word – by faith – and begin today?

CWF NEWS

The annual Treasures and Treats sale is our important project for June. Sharon Hofer has done a wonderful job of getting this endeavor organized. By now, I hope you have gathered your treasures to donate and planned some baked goods to contribute. If you are able to come help set up the sale, that would be greatly appreciated. And, of course, buying something at the sale is the whole purpose!

A part of the proceeds of our various projects are used for church needs, such as the lights that have been improved in the Loehr Center. Hopefully we will no longer have lights flickering or going out all together when we use that facility. We also donated to the sign at Hwy 5 and Hwy 0.

Join us at our next meeting on July 11, at 1:00 PM for a business meeting only.

Celiac Disease

LRHS Parish Nurse Network
Wellness Tip of the Month

What is it?

Celiac disease involves the inability of the digestive tract to absorb gluten which is found in foods that contain wheat, barley or rye. If you have celiac disease and these grains are eaten, damage is caused to your intestines and then certain nutrients cannot be absorbed.

This in turn may cause vitamin deficiencies that may deprive organs, such as the brain, peripheral nervous system, bones, and liver, of vital nourishment.

This disease can occur in adults as well as children. It may also be inherited, so if someone in your family has Celiac disease you may have a greater chance of developing this disease.

Symptoms

There are no symptoms that are typical of celiac disease. General complaints include intermittent diarrhea, abdominal pain and bloating. These symptoms may also be present in other gastrointestinal diseases. Other symptoms that may present themselves include irritability, depression, anemia, stomach upset, joint pain, muscle cramps, skin rash, mouth sores, and tingling in the legs and feet.

If you have concerns that you may have Celiac disease, contact your physician. They can do tests to determine if this disease is present. If you are diagnosed with Celiac disease, then a meeting with a dietician will probably be recommended to discuss a gluten free diet. Medications may be used to control inflammation of the intestine or other complications that may occur. There are also Celiac disease support groups available.
